

Dear Fellow Returned Peace Corps Volunteers,

Are you ready for an evening filled with adventure, inspiration, and unforgettable stories? ✨
We're excited to invite you to join us at Strato 550 for an exclusive talk by our comrade, James Mas! 🍷✈️

Here are the details:

Date: April 16, 2024

Time: 5:30 p.m. – 7:00 p.m.

Location: Strato 550, 1415 Louisiana St

James Mas, a fellow Returned Peace Corps Volunteer, has embarked on an incredible journey that took him to 26 countries across three continents. From his time as a Peace Corps volunteer in Niger, West Africa, to his adventures in Latin America and Europe, James has amassed a treasure trove of experiences that he's eager to share with us. 🌍🌍

Join us for a mesmerizing presentation and photo slideshow that will transport you to the heart of James' global escapades. From budgeting tips to wildlife encounters, safety hacks to culinary delights, this promises to be an evening filled with laughter, insight, and wanderlust. 📷🌍

As a fellow Houston native and a graduate of The University of Alabama, James brings a unique perspective to his travels, weaving together his passion for photography, education, development, and tourism. ✨

Don't miss out on this opportunity to be inspired and enlightened by James Mas' incredible journey. Bring your burning questions for a live Q&A session and let's show up in full force to support our fellow Peace Corps volunteer! 🌍🍷

Save the date, mark your calendar, and get ready for an evening that promises to ignite your sense of adventure and discovery! 📅 ✨
