

Jenine Lemons, RPCV Ecuador 98-01

Jenine was a Peace Corps Volunteer in Esmeraldas, Ecuador from 1998-2001. During her volunteer service, she served as a family-at-risk volunteer and took pride in starting more than fourteen community gardens. She also helped to launch a recycled paper business and co-produced a theatrical play on African American history. Jenine Lemons, LPC-S, NCC, is a bilingual mental health therapist and the clinical director at Theralem, LLC counseling services. She is certified by the National Board of Counselors and licensed to practice in Texas, Georgia, South Carolina, and Florida. Jenine provides counseling services to individuals, couples, groups, as well as children and teens. Jenine is a serious gardener who uses her training as an Urban Grower to cultivate a variety of plants in her home garden including green leafy vegetables, beans, peppers, and tomatoes, as well as herbs, fruits, and flowers. In her free time, Jenine enjoys a variety of activities such as arts and crafts, visiting museums, and taking walks on the beach with her family, regardless of the season.

Jenine Lemons, LPC-S, NCC

RPCV Ecuador 98-01